MAINE

Flash Fiction Writing Workshop Saturday, October 10, 2009 10am to 2:30pm

This workshop will explore different forms of short fiction and its unique characteristics. The elements of brevity, poetic language, and intensity in short fiction will be discussed as well as potential sources of publication. The focus will be to create new work.

Dr. Jim Brosnan is the co-chair of the August Writers Conference. He holds the rank of full professor of English at Johnson & Wales University in Providence, RI. Jim has conducted national workshops in New Jersey and Pennsylvania on writing and poetry as well as regional presentations in Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts. He is a member of the Nomad Writers, a fiction group, and the Tidepool Poets.

Have you always wanted to jumpstart your writing? Join us on Saturday, October 10, 2009 at JORDAN Hall in Ocean Park for the opportunity to start some new literary work.
